Foreword

SCHOOL SPIRIT is the heart of a well-rounded student body. It plays a major part in all aspects of school life. We demonstrate this spirit by our presence at athletic events, by our pride in the school we represent, and by our attitude toward our Alma Mater. Though our spirit may wane at times, our lasting admiration and devotion to Hampton High make us ever aware that we possess that quality which truly makes us strong.

In order to emphasize this characteristic which so definitely exists at Hampton High, we have chosen to spotlight it as the theme of the 1963 KRABBA. Here we have attempted to perpetuate that part of our high school life which makes us proud to have been students of Hampton High School.

Student Life

There is no better example of the school spirit at Hampton High than that shown in the life of her students. From the welcoming speech of Orientation through the final ceremonies of graduation, the special events of a year in Crabberland tell the story of its students' strong sense of pride in their high school.

In the future as we glance back at our high school life, these are the events we will remember . . . the influx of fifteen hundred new students for orientation . . . the festivities of Turkey Day . . . the struggles with mid-term exams . . . the beauties of our own Senior Prom . . . and finally the emotions of graduation. Here we present in substance the school spirit of Hampton High School.

Designed to familiarize new students with the building and system of Hampton High School, this year opened with a unique orientation program held prior to the influx of returning Juniors and Seniors. In an opening assembly in the gym, welcoming speeches were made by the principals before schedules were given out. After brief class periods in which the students became acquainted with their teachers, an assembly program was presented by the SCA. This year's officers were presented in addition to remarks made by Hampton High's first foreign exchange student, Margareta Koestner. The cheerleaders introduced themselves with a few of the familiar Crabber

The students were given maps of the building along with complimentary editions of the Krabba Highlight.

Margareta Koestner, American Field Service foreign exchange student, spoke to the Sophomores and other new students at the orientation assembly. Margareta comes to Hampton from her native land of Austria.

Miss Howard introduces herself to one of her new students, David Phillips, while checking his schedule.

Judy Cox gives out issues of the Krabba Highlight. "My goodness! Imagine how crowded it will be when all the old students get back."

New Juniors wait in line to receive schedules while getting copies of the day's timetable from the student guides.

Shift

The beginning of the year found students stocking up on supplies for the weeks of study ahead. Mrs. Thorpe maintains a well-supplied book store for the convenience of the students.

The first few days of school saw endless introductions for our first foreign exchange student, Margareta Koestner. Miriam Peterson introduces Margareta to Betty Wyatt and Mary Jo Schwalenberg.

Mrs. Taylor is shown operating one of the units of the IBM system installed at Hampton High this year. In addition to this "402", there are two other units comprising the system.

System, IBM Mark Beginning of 1962

Soon after Orientation Day came the return of nearly 1500 more students, giving Hampton High School the largest enrollment in its history. With over 2900 students and faculty, we became one of the largest high schools in the state. Several changes were necessary for the adjustment to this increased enrollment. The shift system was probably most prominent with Juniors and Seniors arriving before eight o'clock in the morning and Sophomores staying on the second shift until after five in the evening. This caused a definite hardship on the Administrative personnel who had to come early and stay late, but who were devoted enough to their professions and to our school to do so.

Another adjustment made was to the presence of the IBM system in our school. The beginning of fourth, seventh, and ninth periods found someone from each classroom taking the absentee cards to the IBM room for processing. Not only were attendance records maintained by the machine, but also the end of every six weeks' period found it printing report cards for distribution to the students. Who knows? Maybe one day they will invent one that will even learn for us.

Even though the year began a little differently than before, adjustments to the changes were soon made as we settled down to complete another year in our life at HHS.

Books were carried around for days before lockers were issued for use. Judy Bretana finds her locker a welcome relief from a load nearly as big as she is.

We began our year with many pep rallies. Here, the majorettes do a routine accompanied by the band.

Fall Activities

Fall, 1962, was just another season of the year; nothing out of the ordinary, nothing spectacular. Yet it was different; it was special. We will never see Fall, 1962, again.

For Seniors, it was melancholy in that it was our final Autumn together in high school. For the first time while at Hampton High, Juniors experienced the thrill of winning football games. Sophomores settled down to become an actual part of Hampton High School.

Yes, this Fall was unique. For now it belongs to us, and we shall never forget it.

Fall found students electing class officers for the coming year. Judy Yates checks registration while these Juniors vote between classes.

College Night was held at Newport News this year with the SCA of both schools acting as guides for the occasion. Susan Marple checks plans with Newport News representative while Paulette Jackson, Mary Jo Schwalenberg, and Louise Beard look on.

Displayed Crabbers' Enthusiasm

Many pep rallies were held in the Fall behind the building. These heightened the spirits of the Crabbers, who supported the team well in attendance both at home and on the road. We were justly repaid by a fine performance of the Big Red.

Following the pep rallies at school, Friday nights usually found the students of Hampton High attending home football games at Darling Memorial Stadium. The band always had an enjoyable half-time program to present. Here, they participate in a mass band made up of all the junior high school bands in Hampton in addition to the Hampton High School band.

Mr. Lively crowns Barbara Riggle the 1962 Football Homecoming Queen as her escort, Bob Hewitt, looks on.

This trophy, which was first presented in 1952, was given this year to Barbara Riggle. After her name was engraved on the trophy, it was returned to the school to be kept in the trophy case.

Homecoming Queen

Football Homecoming ceremonies were held at Darling Memorial Stadium on November 19 during half-time of the Hampton-Warwick football game.

To the strains of "Stairway to the Stars," Mr. Lively crowned Barbara Riggle the 1962 Homecoming Queen. Escorted by Bob Hewitt, Miss Riggle was presented a perpetual loving cup and the traditional silver platter.

The International Princess, Margareta Koestner, was introduced by the Homecoming Queen. Miss Koestner had as her escort Gary Boxer.

Representing the Senior Class were attendants Louise Beard, escorted by Walton Bondurant, and Paulette Jackson, escorted by Chandler Nelms. Kathy Seaton was the Junior Class attendant. Miss Seaton was escorted by Curwin Abbott.

The Hampton High School Marching Band formed an arch through which Miss Riggle and her court entered. They also provided the background music for the ceremonies.

A perfect night was climaxed by Hampton's 13-7 victory over Warwick.

Walton Bondurant escorts senior attendant, Louise Beard.

Kathy Seaton, junior attendant, escorted by Curwin Abbott.

Senior attendant, Paulette Jackson escorted by Chandler Nelms.

Newly crowned queen waves to admiring homecoming crowd.

Although the bon-fire was rained out, the spirit of the Hampton students was bright and shone through in the parade and "Victory Dance." Cars and trucks were decorated in red and white and colorful floats added to the festivities of the evening.

Starting behind Thorpe Junior High School, the parade proceeded to weave throughout the streets of Hampton, onto Queen Street, and returned to Thorpe.

Participants in the parade included school clubs such as the FTA and German Club, cheerleaders, members of the Marching Band, and sororities and fraternities.

After the parade, the "Victory Bon-Fire Dance" was held in the school cafeteria. Approximately half the student body participated in this SCA sponsored affair.

Thanksgiving

Limitless devotion to the game as well as to the school is characterized in the all-out effort of the boys to obtain a victory. Here, Mike Thomas is injured on a play but later returned to give a fine performance for the Red and White.

Typhoon gridder rides roughshod on Crabber Ashton Wray.

A splendid half-time performance was displayed by the Hampton High School Marching Band and Majorettes.

Classic Sparked by Determination.

A vital part in any game, the cheerleaders maintained the support of the fans for the Crabbers.

The following day, Thanksgiving, saw the two rivals, Hampton and Newport News, clash in the traditional Turkey-Day Game. Under the sunny sky, students cheered their best and gridders played their best. It was not until the final gun had sounded that the victor of the game was certain, and Newport News had squeezed by the Mighty Crabbers by the slim margin of 6-0.

Entertainment was provided at half-time by the Hampton High Marching Band and majorettes and the Newport News Marching Band and flag twirlers. An excellent program was presented by both award-winning bands.

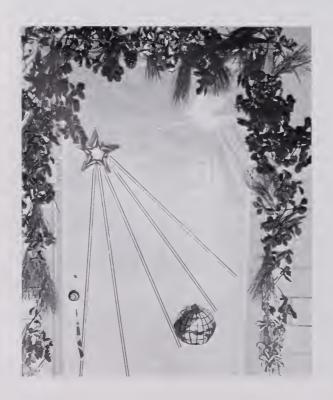

Spirit is heightened the night before the Turkey Day game by a downtown parade and a bonfire behind the school. Though rain prevented the fire, it couldn't dampen the spirits of these Crabbers as the parade went on as scheduled.

Christmas Decor Lights Up HHS Halls

The traditional Christmas tree was placed in the hall as various students decorated it. Mike Thomas replaces one of the lights while Nancy Smith, Bill Eyre, and Paulette Jackson apply other ornaments.

Christmas, 1962, was celebrated in the halls of Hampton High just as much as in the hearts of its students. Cheery greetings could be heard as spirited Crabbers decorated their classroom doors and addressed their final Christmas cards. As usual, a tree was placed in the hall and was decorated by the students.

As the ground became covered with snow and ice we found ourselves viewing our first "white" Christmas since we had been Crabbers. Parties and dances maintained a joyous atmosphere throughout the holidays until we soon had to return to school for the few short weeks before exams.

Miss Magette's door took top honors as it portrayed "Peace on Earth."

Mid-Winter Brings Exams

Winter brought its usual snowfalls and hazardous weather. Though not many days were missed because of snow, we saw several times from inside the classroom the grounds covered with white.

Many hours were spent in review and preparation for the dreaded ordeal of mid-term exams. We remember the "honor talks" given prior to each examination by members of the Honor Council. The two hours just didn't seem like enough time for that long test as we realized how much more we should have worked during the semester.

That winter was cold, and exams didn't help to brighten the situation any, either. But now they are over and are merely nightmares in our calendar of events of the year.

Exam week found many students cramming into the wee hours of the night for those all-important examinations. Elise Kollmann tries desperately to refresh her semester's work in English literature.

Carol Verell Reigns as 1963

Basketball Homecoming Queen

Carol Verell reigned as the Basketball Homecoming Queen in the game between Hampton and York. Members of the Varsity Club formed a pathway through which Carol and her court were presented. Princesses in the court were Susan Traynham, Cheryl Geer, and Martha Reed Ennis.

Spectators at the game witnessed a high-scoring, high-spirited contest. The Crabbers, led by outgoing seniors and two members of the J.V. team, W. R. Deskins, and Mike Yearwood, scored 79 points to defeat York by a score of 79-52.

Because this was the last game of the year, students remained standing at the close of the game to sing the Fight Song and the Alma Mater.

Warren Chapman adds two points to the Hampton score despite efforts by a York player.

Avid Crabber fans add to the noise and cheering at the homecoming game with York High.

Three Chosen as National Merit Finalists

National Merit Scholarship semi-finalists and finalists from Hampton High School are Carl Markowitz. Robert Snow, and Thomas Moore.

Hampton High has always been proud of the high achievements of its students. One of the most worthy of these is the National Merit Scholarship program. Here students compete for scholarship benefits on a national level.

This year Hampton High School had three students selected as semi-finalists and these same three also advanced to finalist standing. Carl Markowitz, Tommy Moore, and Bob Snow were chosen on the basis of test scores reported from the foundation's examination given to all junior applicants, and the College Board scores for semi-finalists. This selection is regarded as an honor not only for these students who were chosen, but also for their high school.

Such a wide variety; I think I'll choose this one.

Hampton Welcomes First Exchange Student

Margareta Koestner

This year marked the climax of a project begun early last year. Hampton High finally received its first foreign exchange student.

Late last summer, Margareta Antonia Koestner came to Hampton from her home in Klagenfurt, Austria. She had already completed her high school years there and attended Hampton High this year as a Senior. In addition to her classes, Margareta attended athletic contests, social events, and in general led a very active life throughout the school year in an effort to become acquainted with our American way of life. She left after graduation to tour the United States before returning to Austria.

Of her year at Hampton High, Margareta remarked, "It's been wonderful, but now I am glad to go home." Surely we will remember Margareta for a long time to come and we hope that we have left an impression on her that will not be soon forgotten.

During Foreign Language Week the devotions were given in a different foreign language each day. On the day for the German language Margareta read from a German Bible in her own native language. Jean Clodfelter, chairman of the Hampton chapter of the American Field Service, shows Margareta one of the Exchange Bonds which were sold to help finance her year in the United States.

After the last snow melted, after the final frost turned to morning dew, we experienced a beautiful Spring in Crabberland. The rush of Spring sports drew Cheerleaders and fans into the outdoors again. Gym classes shifted to outdoor recreation and even a few academic classes were held in the shade of the woods behind the school.

Even though we didn't have a State Champion Track team, even though our Baseball team lost the district title only on a technical ruling, the spirit of Hampton's Crabbers was displayed in a continuous effort to bring recognition to Hampton High School. This Spring also saw Hampton enter district competition in Tennis for the first time.

Election of SCA officers dominated the scene as the year rapidly drew to a close. The results showed Trotter Hardy to be SCA President for the 1963-64 school year.

The many activities of Spring made it seem to pass faster than usual. But short as it was, it was filled with memories which we shall never forget.

Spring Fever

The party caucuses are a familiar springtime event. Students choose between the Krabbacrat and Hamptonian parties and then help to nominate the party's candidates. Trotter Hardy reads out nominations for vice president on the Krabbacrat ticket while Carol Brinkman helps to count votes.

Tradition entered the scene when Juniors received their Class rings. Lynne Andrews is pleased to conform to this custom as Billy Vann obliges with the traditional Senior kiss while placing the ring on her finger.

Gripped Crabbers as Warm Weather Arrived

Several classes were held outside in an effort to escape the heat inside the building. This provided an excellent opportunity for art students to find natural and varied subjects.

When the weather turned warm, the cheerleaders' stand behind the building became a popular lounging area between classes and at lunch time.

"Sayonara," Seniors of 1962

Under billowy clouds of parachutes, Jett Rollo and his band played to the theme of the 1962 Prom, "Sayonara." An evening of pleasant music was enjoyed by all who attended.

Students and faculty members dance to the music of Jett Rollo and his band. Here they listen to the singer of the band perform.

The theme of the 1962 prom, "Sayonara," was reflected effectively in the beautiful decorations which created two large Japanese rooms. From the ceilings of both gyms, parachutes were hung to give them a low ceiling appearance. The walls of crepe paper, and the Japanese garden with its waterfall, racks, flowers, and artificial grass added perfectly to the oriental atmosphere of the gyms.

During the intermission, the program, "This Is Your Year," began with a welcome speech from Lane Kelly to the seniors. It was followed by the presentation of the Junior Class officers. Arlie Williams presented the Senior Class officers, the past queens, the Hall of Fame, and the King and Queen through the medium of a poem.

1963 Seniors Are Bid Farewell

Decorations in variegated colors from lavender to pink set the background for the theme of the 1963 prom — "Moon River."

Students and faculty members danced to the music of Jett Rollo in the boys' gym and the "Blazers" in the girls' gym. Both bands provided popular and older hits for the enjoyment of all those present.

During the intermission, princesses and princes from each of the Senior English classes were presented. To highlight the evening, the king and queen were crowned by Mr. Lively. A solo piano selection was presented by Brenda Dancey, and Carol Townsend sang "Moon River" as the court was presented.

Many days of hard work by Mr. Mitchem and all committees were rewarded on the night of May 3, as everyone declared it to be a most enjoyable evening and a most beautiful prom.

Mr. Stanley Mitchem crowns Paulette Jackson queen of the 1963 Prom as king, Chandler Nelms, watches. Paulette and Chandler were chosen by popular vote of the senior class.

Students dance to music provided by Jett Rollo and his band in the boys' gym. Many old songs were brought back to the memories of students and faculty.

Music in the girls' gym was presented by the "Blazers." Here, students dance the Thunderbird to one of the popular songs.

In Theme of Prom — Moon River

Musicians in the "Blazers" begin a night of swinging music in the girls' gym.

Students find the music most enjoyable as they dance in the girls' gym.

Class Night Introduced Year's Final Events

"Thanks for the Memories" was the theme of Class Night, 1963. The program was based upon the memories we hold of our days at Hampton High School. It was cleverly staged with three annuals, representing the Seniors, sophomore, junior, and senior years at HHS. In an effort to maintain the dignity of this, your 1963 KRABBA, its cover was not revealed, while only a facsimile of it represented our Senior year.

Included in the program were the readings of the Class History and Prophecy and the Last Will and Testament, the introduction of the Hall of Fame, and the presentation of gifts by the Giftorian on behalf of the Senior Class.

Standing ovations for Mr. Szetela, Mr. Lively, and Miss Lane provided a fitting climax for the evening's program.

Irene Lenkerd and Bob Kenney portrayed graduating Seniors in reflections of the Seniors' last year.

At Last

The wind played havoc with tassels and hats as Mary Charles White gave her valedictory address.

Mixed emotions are evident in the faces of these girls ready for the processional.

The Big Day Arrived — Graduation 1963!

Accompanied by the band's "Processional," the faculty, led by Mr. Becouvarakis, preceded the procession of Seniors.

Happiness, sadness, and nostalgia blended into the making of Graduation, 1963. For some, it represented the ending of the best days in life; for others, it marked the beginning of a new and different phase of life.

The program was highlighted by selections from the band and speeches from Mary Charles White, valedictorian, Helen Howze, salutatorian, and "Buzzy" League, president of the Senior class. An address by C. Alton Lindsay, superintendent of schools, preceded the awarding of diplomas to the 660 graduates.

As the exercises drew to a close with the recessional, the Class of 1963 found that they had only diplomas, tassels, and memories of their years at H.H.S.

Seniors are pictured during the recessional following the Baccalaureate sermon on the Sunday night before graduation. The service was held in the gym.

Administration and Faculty

More often than is realized, our faculty displays its own type of school spirit. Many hours of outside work and study beyond the call of duty go into an all-out effort to make Hampton High the finest, most well-equipped, secondary school in our area.

We are fortunate to possess a staff which is comparable, in qualifications as well as efficiency, to all others. Though our faculty is quite large, a definite concern for the student as an individual is displayed by each instructor. In class, in private conference after school, or at night, each teacher strives to inspire us and make us realize the value and importance of an education.

Here are the familiar faces who represent that type of school spirit which is more valuable to us than words can express.

Mr. Szetela appears to have been making a "consolation."

On alternate Tuesday nights the Hampton School Board meets to discuss problems and changes in the various schools throughout the city. Headed by the Superintendent of Schools C. Alton Lindsay, the group has more than adequately supplied administrative assistance not only to Hampton High, but to all the schools throughout the system. Working with our principal, Mr. Garland R. Lively, and our assistant principals, Mr. Becouvarakis and Mr. Szetela, the school board provides for the smooth running of Hampton High School.

Mr. Lively has the busy job of being the administrative head of our school. He conducts faculty meetings, officiates at all assemblies, and frequently makes speeches and addresses on behalf of the school. In addition to these responsibilities, he sponsors the Key Club and keeps in contact with his students and faculty.

Mr. "Bee" is responsible for all financial matters dealing with Hampton High. He is in charge of obtaining Federal Survey forms from every student twice a year and of receiving and paying out money for all the publications of the school.

Our other assistant principal, Mr. Szetela, serves as dean of boys and is responsible for the good behavior and well-being of all the boys of Hampton High. Behind the stern face necessary for such a job is a friendly smile and an outstretched hand ready to help in any instance.

Included among the clerical staff are the office workers, the IBM operators, and the clerks. Arriving before school in the morning and often staying after school, the office staff and clerks aid not only the administration but also the faculty and students. Helping to provide for the smooth operation of Hampton High, doing secretarial work, maintaining the bookstore, and keeping track of all the school textbooks, give these workers a full-time job.

With the installation of the IBM machine, a specially trained operator had to be employed this year. The machine tabulates attendance records and report cards, relieving a part of the workload of the individual faculty members.

As evidence that talent exists at Hampton High, one needs only to walk through the art room and notice the various creations and paintings, all done by Hampton High art students. These students are instructed in the areas of abstract, perspective, and pastel art work in addition to flower and glass arrangements.

Home Economics deals a bit more with the practical side of life. Here girls learn the fundamentals of homemaking such as cooking, sewing . . . and washing dishes. These are presented in their relationship to a smooth running household.

Also included in this department is the course in Practical Nursing. Students may take this course for actual credit toward a degree in Nursing. Taught for three hours a day, the course provides a background in human psysiology and in the proper care and treatment of the body. This program has opened the door for many students interested in entering the Nursing profession.

Providing a strong background in clerical and business work, the commercial department prepares students for careers in the business world. Although the course in typing is most sought after, the department also offers training in the areas of business machines, shorthand, accounting, and bookkeeping.

In addition to these classroom courses, the department is responsible for the Distributive Education program, wherein students are assigned jobs in the downtown retail stores. These students receive on-the-job training and experience. In cooperation with the merchants of Hampton, this program has proven very successful in getting interested students off on the right foot in the field of business.

Not only is method stressed in typing, but also students learn proper form for business and personal correspondence. After completing a two year course in high school, many students are ready to step directly into office work.

Language Classes Emphasize Conversation

Miss Fountain adjusts her control panel to listen to a student read a passage in Spanish.

Realizing the importance of foreign languages in today's world, this department of Hampton High offers a variety of languages to choose from. In addition to the modern languages of French, German, and Spanish, classical Latin is also offered.

Along with the study of the language itself, students are also instructed in the geography and history of the country whose language they are learning. This promotes a better understanding of the customs and traditions of the people who speak the language.

These courses provide a firm foundation for further study which students will encounter in college.

Before one can begin to study foreign languages, he must be thoroughly acquainted with his own. Not only is this true in the case of foreign languages, but also to be successful in one's career he must have a working knowledge of his own language. Our English classes are set up to provide students with this knowledge.

In the straight English classes, business English is introduced parallel to the conventional English grammar to familiarize students with the actual application of the language to their everyday lives. Grammar is also a major part of college prep English. Usually one semester is spent on grammar while the other is devoted to the study of literature.

By being exposed to the mechanics of English every year, students are usually well prepared for college English courses.

The various publications of the school are usually sponsored by English teachers. Here Prentiss Gandy and Susan Hancock work on a news article for the paper while Miss Peoples and Bill Eyre check a dictionary for the correct spelling of a word.

Classes Employ Students' Self-Expression

Included in the English Curriculum are the areas of Drama and Speech. These classes provide an opportunity for students to improve their personal speaking habits and public appearances.

The Drama department is responsible for all stage performances during the school year. These productions include the Fall Play, Play Night, and the Senior Class Play. In the Play Night feature, drama students themselves direct the three one-act plays under the general supervision of Miss Dellinger.

Speech students must give original speeches before the class in addition to regular class work. This acquaints students with the proper poise and speaking habits necessary for successful public speaking.

Guidance

Considered the nerve center of our school, the Guidance Department has a full-time job in maintaining the records of over 2800 students in addition to offering its counseling services at almost any time. These counselors offer advice to students as to subjects to take for proper career preparation, opportunities for college training, and available scholarships.

All college applications are handled through the department which is responsible for mailing each student's grades to all colleges applied to, a tremendous task indeed. Often the department is called upon by businessmen for references on past as well as present students.

A truly invaluable service is rendered by the guidance personnel and we express our sincerest thanks for it.

Hampton is located in quite an industrial area. Not only is there a variety of military installations nearby, but we also have on the peninsula one of the nation's leading shipbuilders, the Newport News Shipyard. All of these industries need skilled laborers to function. Hampton High School's Industrial Arts Department has trained many of these workers in the past and still continues to do so. Students may choose from a variety of shop classes which offer actual manual training on the machines many of them will operate for their life's work. Also included in the department are the courses in Mechanical Drawing. These courses lay a strong foundation in Drafting, necessary for a career in Engineering or Industry.

Contribute to Students' Education

Our library is a major element in the success of the students of Hampton High. Here can be found innumerable resource units, periodicals, professional magazines, and books for our own reading pleasure.

Each year during National Book Week, the various organizations and clubs donate books to the library. Having grown steadily since the shift to the new building in 1958, our library now has more than ten thousand books and hundreds of magazines and pamphlets.

In addition to these invaluable learning aids of literature, an audio-visual library is also maintained. Films, records, and tapes are available to teachers at any time to assist in the educational program of the school. These are handled and operated by the boys of the Projection Staff, sponsored by the librarians.

This vital unit of Hampton High School is headed by Mrs. Ballagh, head librarian. She is ably assisted by Miss Barr, Mrs. Nixon, and Mrs. Carmines.

A debt of gratitude is owed to these who play a major part in our allaround growth and education as students.

Our library has a collection of books representing all types of literature. Bill Hibble chooses one of fiction for his own reading pleasure.

For the first time this year, Calculus was offered at Hampton High. The course was taught on television while Mrs. Parrish officiated in the classroom.

Though mathematics is not required at Hampton High, it constitutes a major portion of the curriculum of the school. The fact that one uses so much math in everyday life is reason enough for having some knowledge of the subject.

The courses range in intensity from General Math through the television course of Calculus. Within this scope lie the courses of Algebra, Plane and Solid Geometry, Trigonometry, Advanced Mathematics, and Advanced Algebra.

Where possible, these courses are taught from an applied standpoint, making the subject easier to understand and therefore more enjoyable to the student.

As one progresses deeper into the study of Mathematics, he is concerned more and more with analysis. In this study, the graph is of utmost importance. With a graph, higher equations may be given linear equivalents and may even be solved; solid figures may be analyzed and progressions plotted.

The graph is first introduced in Algebra. It is explained more fully in Trig as the various trigonometric functions are plotted. In Calculus also, much of the course is centered around the use of the graph.

In spite of its importance however, the graph is but one aspect of a course as broad and expanding as is the future itself.

Music Department

The music department of Hampton High includes both instrumental and vocal groups. For the enjoyment of the students and general public alike, both units present a series of concerts throughout the year.

Due to the increased enrollment of our school this year, the band was forced to divide. The Sophomores, under the direction of Mr. Sydney R. Swiggett, formed what became known as the White Band while the Juniors and Seniors countered with the Red Band, directed by Mr. T. T. Lawrence. The two combined under Mr. Lawrence's direction to form the 110 piece Concert Band.

The vocal program is a graded one, ranging from Music Appreciation, which delves into the mood and theory of music, through the performing A Cappella Choir, which offers a variety of sacred, secular, and popular tunes in its various concerts throughout the year. This year, the A Cappella, directed by Mr. Swiggett, travelled to New York City for a three day weekend in April. As a conclusion to the Band's Christmas Concert, the choruses were asked to assist by providing the vocal score to "Onward Ye Peoples" and the "Halleluiah Chorus" while accompanied by the Concert Band.

The evening was a definite success as it marked the first complete combining of the vocal and instrumental departments of Hampton High in a single concert.

Hampton High is fortunate to have a Physical Education program as broad and varied as ours is. Not only do those boys participating in the major competitive sports receive the physical building and training they need, but also every able student, both boys and girls.

Our facilities are designed for maximum participation by the students in that we have two double-sized gymnasiums which may be partioned into two separate gyms each, thereby actually offering four areas for separate class training. Students are instructed in all areas of physical growth from individual exercises to group participation in several sports and games.

It is the responsibility of the department to make certain that the Crabbers of Hampton High grow in physical fitness as well as in mental understanding.

The odds seem to be in the "skins" favor as a driving layup is attempted.

Gym Classes Promote Physical Fitness

All interscholastic sports at Hampton are under the direction of the Physical Education department. We are represented in almost all of the competitive sports in the Eastern District. Here, Hampton loses slight margin in final seconds to Warwick, who finally won in an overtime thriller.

Social Studies courses cover such a wide area of the curriculum of Hampton High School that this department is now the second largest in the school. In addition to the required courses of American history and government and the optional courses of world history and geography, this year our school extended its social studies curriculum to include the television courses of economics and personal finance.

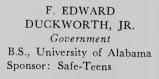

Aware of the increasing importance placed on the affairs of today's world, our administration has shown its concern for the most adequate and up-to-date educational needs of the students by placing these additional modernistic courses in its curriculum.

Curriculum Offers Ample Coverage

In addition to his course on Personal Finance, Mr. Mendelson also teaches World History to Sophomores. Here, he conducts a lecture during the fifth period.

The Congo issue is one of the most troublesome in our world affairs today. Mr. Maynor points out to Susan Hayes the relationship of this country to its surroundings on a world globe.

The Social Studies department actually has a dual teaching responsibility. Its courses stress present events and probe past phases of the subject.

Both of the history courses proceed from their study of the past directly into the problems and situations of today. The other courses continually evaluate the relationship of the past in forming the present.

Another added feature of this curriculum is a new course also just introduced this year, "The Nature of Communism," taught by Mr. Paul Crider. Mr. Crider attended a seminar in 1962 to acquaint himself with this controversial movement for the purpose of introducing it to high school Seniors. Offered parallel to the required course of U.S. Government, the course points up the evils and dangers of such a society as compared and opposed to our own democratic form of government.

Preparing and serving sanitary, healthy, and appetizing food for the more than 2500 students and faculty is the tremendous task of the cafeteria staff. Headed by Mrs. Ruth Holloman, the staff serves three lunch periods daily offering alternate choices of plate lunches as well as a variety of sandwiches and desserts.

Due to the immense size of the student body, this staff has an all-day job in preparing and serving the food and then putting in order the 128 tables and 1536 chairs.

An added convenience for the students is the service of juices, desserts, and ice cream in the mornings before the start of classes.

Mrs. Ruth Holloman is head of the Cafeteria Staff and is in charge of co-ordinating the daily menus.

Staff Keeps Hampton High Attractive

Mr. Fitchett sweeps stairwell floor between classes.

In addition to keeping our school presentable to the public at all times, this staff also works for the convenience of the students and faculty. Mr. Beauhan installs an electric outlet in the SCA room by connecting to the light fixture in the ceiling.

There are over one hundred rooms and more than a quarter mile of halls in Hampton High School. In addition to keeping these clean, it is the responsibility of the custodial staff to maintain proper heating and lighting in the building at all times. Much work that we students seldom realize is carried on behind the scenes. Arriving before the first students in the morning and staying until after the last Sophomores of the second shift, it is an all-day job for this staff to maintain in excellent fashion a building as large and complex as ours is. Thanks to Mr. Doyle and his staff, we can at all times be pleased to show friends and visitors our Hampton High School, of which we truly and justly are proud.

Classes

From September until June, all day and at all times, the school spirit of Hampton High is displayed by the individuals who make up the student body. Each student has a responsibility for upholding the reputation and public opinion of his high school. This has been an especially great task this year with our record enrollment of more than 2800 students. Our spirit, however, has not suffered in the least. Wherever one finds himself, he can be proud to say he is a student at Hampton High School.

Here, we present the familiar faces of the personalities who have made up our year at Hampton High.

Our Senior Class is fortunate to have as dedicated a sponsor as Miss Elsie Gay Lane. Even with her other work as a teacher of American History and the head of the Social Studies department, she always seems to have a spare minute to talk with us about the problems we might have. Much of her own time in and away from school is spent in planning and in preparing for Class Day and Graduation. She also works with the various Senior committees responsible for ordering caps and gowns and invitations. Indeed, a debt of gratitude is owed to Miss Lane by every member of the Class of '63.

Miss Lane is responsible for all official functions of the Senior Class. Here, she reviews the script for the Class Day ceremonies.

Judy Yates, Miriam Peterson, Diana Petit, Louise Beard, Carol Verell, Alyce Talley, Sherri Carpini, Tally Mims, Margareta Koestner, Jean Clodfelter.

Largest Senior Class in School's History

With the elimination of homerooms this year, more emphasis has been placed on the unity of the individual classes. This is especially prevalent in our Senior Class because of the ceremonies of Class Day and Graduation which must be planned from early in the year. In addition to the various Senior committees, SCA representatives were selected on a class basis this year, also.

Leading this year's Senior Class are the officers elected in the Fall. Buzzy League, as president, has the responsibility of addressing the Class during the Class Day ceremonies in June. Much of the coordinating of these events is carried out by Vice-President Larry Guffey. Endless notes and records are kept in order by Penny Livingston while financial matters regarding the class are managed by Susan Marple.

These leaders working together have helped to make ours the finest and most successful Senior Class ever.

Juniors

Stanley W. Mitchem
Sponsor

In addition to teaching Senior college-bound English, Mr. Stanley Mitchem also serves as sponsor of the Junior Class. Many hours were spent with the officers of the class planning, decorating, and presenting the Junior-Senior prom in May. Another time consuming part of the job is in the checking of bids issued to the prom. Much of his own time and originality goes into the making of this one special event a big success. Because of his devotion to his profession and to the students he teaches, Mr. Mitchem is well liked by his students and the work done by him to make our school life one of happiness is truly appreciated.

Mr. Mitchem pauses while grading test papers to answer a student's question. He is a devoted teacher as well as a capable sponsor.

Select "Moon River" for Prom Theme

The Junior Class officers for 1962-63 are Cheryl Geer, secretary, Skip Jackson, president, Rick Donlan, Vice-President, and Carol Copeland, treasurer.

Working with their sponsor, Mr. Mitchem, the officers of the Junior Class coordinate all the events of the class year. From September until June, these people are continually responsible for the success of the class. Leading the class this year as president is Skip Jackson. His close associate is Rick Donlan, vice-president. These two shoulder the actual leadership of the class while assisted by secretary Cheryl Geer and Carol Copeland, treasurer. Cheryl is responsible for minutes, correspondence, and clerical matters of the class while Carol is in charge of managing class dues and any other monetary affairs concerning the class.

Working together, these officers have helped to make the class the success that it has been this year.

Sophomores Experiment with Shift System

Kathryn V. Bully Sponsor

Despite its enormous size, this year's Sophomore Class has taken an active part in the affairs of the school. Led by John Ishon, president, the class has two members on the newlyformed Honor Council in addition to its representatives to the SCA.

Assisting John are Ellen Hancock, vice-president, Mary Lynn Lewis, secretary, and Ann Ailor, treasurer. These officers, with advice from Miss Kathryn Bully, the class sponsor, direct the activities of the class.

The Sophomore class, numbering 1200, adjusted well to a new routine of school life, a staggered shift system, and quickly became an integral part of the Hampton High student body.

Organizations

All of these factors and many more are part of the school spirit displayed at Hampton High.

SCA Serves Hampton Students —

The SCA of Hampton High, now in its seventh year of service to the students, has as objectives acquainting the students with the school, maintaining school unity and spirit, and training members for leadership.

Representatives are elected from each class to help keep the students informed of the activities and projects of the SCA. All school assemblies, elections, pep-rallies, special events, and dances are under the sponsorship and direction of this organization.

Under the SCA heading comes the Executive Board. The committees represented are the Welfare, P.T.A. and Guidance, H.H.S., Honor Council, Special Events, Scrapbook, Elections, Point System, Assemblies, Sportsmanship, Dance, and Publicity. These committees strive to help the students better their school life.

One of the important projects of the Executive Board this year was helping the faculty with the evaluation of Hampton High School.

One of the many events the SCA sponsors each year is the annual P.T.A. Fashion Show. Lane Kelly and new found "Country Cousin" model the ?newest? fashions for Spring.

Lane Kelly, SCA President, conducts one of the bi-monthly meetings of the SCA Council. Present are the representatives from each class and school-sponsored club.

Aids Faculty in Evaluation Program

Members of the 1962-1963 SCA Executive Board were Cam Ballard, assemblies; Sandi Burton, welfare; Stan Latham, point system; Paulette Jackson, scrapbook; Mary Jo Schwalenberg, assistant secretary; Tommy Joyner, vice-president; Carol Verell, chaplain; Lane Kelly, president; John Rollins, sportsmanship; Sally Stewart, H.H.S.; Louise Beard, treasurer; Susan Marple, P.T.A. and guidance; Jean Clodfelter, secretary. Omitted from the picture are Mr. Joseph Price, SCA advisor; Barbara Riggle, publicity; Susan Traynham, dance; and Lynda Whiteside, special events.

For the first time in the history of Hampton's SCA, a special room was designated as the SCA room. This room was used to keep files of each committee and all correspondence. Various meetings of the Executive Board were also held here. At the beginning of the year, new lights were installed in the SCA room by our maintenance staff.

Hamptonian Is Federation President

On Federation Exchange Day, each of the peninsula schools hosts the students from the other schools. At these meetings problems of the SCA are discussed and many times acted upon. Here, Irene Jacobs, Mary Lynn Lewis, Lane Kelly, Kathy Seaton, Judy Casey, Bobby King, and John Ishon prepare to leave for Warwick High School for the final meeting of the year.

Representatives from the high schools of Hampton, Warwick, Ferguson, York, and Newport News, comprise the Peninsula SCA Federation. The purpose of this organization is to foster better relationships among the area schools. The 1962-1963 slate of officers included Bobby King, president, and Jamie Hubbard, secretary. Other delegates from Hampton were Judy Casey, Irene Jacobs, Warren Chapman, Kathy Seaton, Tucker Garwood, Lane Kelly, Ellen Hancock, and John Ishon.

Hosts to the Federation this year were Ferguson and Warwick. At meetings held at these schools, the organization planned its project for the year, the re-flooring of five therapy rooms in the Hampton Roads Hearing and Speech Center.

Several weeks during the year were set aside to emphasize our American principles. Among these were Know Your Federation Week, Brotherhood Week, and Americanism Week.

New Honor Council Begins Work at HHS

One of the main projects of the Honor Council was the posting of the honor pledge. This pledge, written on all school work, was not designed to detect dishonest students, but to instill in them a feeling of honesty and hard work. This bulletin board was arranged by the council with the distribution of the pledge.

The Honor Council, formed this year, had as its main objective the promotion of honor among the students of Hampton.

Infractions of school rules, vandalism, and dishonesty were some of the problems reviewed by the Council. The main projects of the year were posting the honor pledge in each classroom and sponsoring several informative assemblies.

Officers of the Honor Council under the guidance of Mrs. Connor, sponsor, were Jim Matheson, president; Sonny Smith, co-chairman; and Cheryl Geer, secretary.

Hampton Sends 19 to Boys', Girls' State

Delegates to Boys' and Girls' State were (ROW 1) Stan Latham, Johnnie Jackson, David Conway, Paul Powell, (ROW 2) Lynda Whiteside, Susan Marple, Carol Verell, Jean Clodfelter, Louise Beard, (ROW 3) Lane Kelly, Donnie Woodall, Tommy Joyner, John Mann, Bill Mettler, and Bobby King. Not shown here are Mallory Sinclair, Jane Daugherty, Walton Bondurant, and Wade Mackey.

Sponsored by the American Legion, nineteen Juniors represented Hampton High at Boys' State and Girls' State. Students were chosen for their qualities of leadership and scholarship.

Meeting at Radford and Virginia Polytechnic Institute, the students were given a first hand review of many governmental procedures. Lectures, election of city and state officers, adoption of city charters, and a ball held on the Radford campus, highlighted the stay of all delegates.

At the close of the week, a spokesman for the governor of Virginia presented a speech before a joint meeting of the boys and girls.

Some of the members of Boys' and Girls' State discuss the meetings and activities they attended while at Radford and V.P.I. Those reporting are Mallory Sinclair, Walton Bondurant, Bobby King, Wade Mackey, and Lane Kelly.

Key Club Strives for Leadership

Each year the members of the Key Club compile a KRABBA DIRECTORY containing the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all the students at Hampton High. Here Paul Powell, Charles Aardema, and Mike Jones use "friendly persuasion" on Billy Johnson in their efforts to sell the directory.

The Key Club, under the presidency of Bobby King and the guidance of Mr. Lively, strives for leadership and good standing in the school and in the community.

Various projects throughout the year included the selling of programs during football season, the editing and the distributing of the KEY CLUB DIRECTORY, and helping the school and civic clubs in various ways. Boys, to be in the Key Club, must meet special requirements in academic and citizenship fields. It is an honor to be selected to serve in this organization.

Other officers this year were Paul Powell, vice-president; Richard Jones, secretary; Walton Bondurant, treasurer; Mike Jones, SCA representative; and Bruce Malone, chaplain.

Students Aid Librarians in Work

During the day students may come to the library to check out or return books, use reference materials, or do their homework. They may also buy paper-back books which are required for English classes.

The library assistants at Hampton High help the librarians in such ways as writing overdue notices, checking books in and out, and filing new books which come into the library. Those students who become library aides are introduced into a literary career similar to that of an actual librarian.

Officers were Patsy Hobbs, president: Connie Osburn, vice-president; Jane Sherman, secretary-treasurer; and Barbara Braig, S.C.A. representative. Under the guidance of Mrs. Robert Ballagh and Miss Barbara Barr, co-sponsors, students worked toward their aim of acquainting pupils with the many books of reference and enjoyment which may be found in our library.

Patsy Hobbs. Carolyn Herron, Connie Osburn, Ann Preddy, and Tom Parker watch as Mrs. Ballagh demonstrates the correct way to check out books for students.

Staff Aids in Concerts and Assemblies

Setting up microphones for assemblies, meetings, and pep rallies, working with prop committees for class plays, and checking all school audiographic materials are the jobs of the members of Hampton's Audiographic Staff.

Under the direction of Mr. Ward, students were taught the mechanics and use of the school's electrical equipment. The experience and training gained by the students on the Audiographic Staff are valuable to those who plan to enter the fields of electronics or to work with sound equipment.

Working the lights for such school functions as class plays and concerts is a job of the members of the audiographic staff. Here Eugene Wilson checks the amount of lighting to be used in a scene of the senior class play.

Members of the Audiographic Staff, John Nayadley, Eugene Wilson, Nelson Seely, and Thomas Sharp, test equipment for accuracy and quality in the school's electrical shop.

Future Teachers Learn New Teaching Methods

This year the Future Teachers of America carried on many projects under the direction of the officers: Christine Larner, president; Pat Styles, vice-president; Joyce Harris, secretary; Carlean Strayer, treasurer; Alyce Talley, SCA Representative, and the guidance of Mrs. Catherine Wilson. One of these projects was a party for the patients in the hospital at Dunbar. Another project was to aid teachers in teaching and grading papers. During American Education Week, each teacher was recognized by the gift of a marking pen. For their own enjoyment the members had two teas and a picnic. All of these project activities work toward the purposes of the F.T.A.; these purposes being to acquaint high school students with an insight into teaching while at the same time to offer pleasure to those who are participating.

One of the projects of the F.T.A. was helping teachers instruct students in classes. Ellen McLaughlan, Jackie Pittman, Lee Houck, and Ray Pepe listen while Alyce Talley explains a scene of MACBETH.

Future Teachers of America for 1962-1963 were (ROW 1) Carlean Strayer, Jackie Sanders, (ROW 2) Pat Styles, Ursula Brown, Christine Larner, Alyce Talley, and Joyce Harris.

Chem-Phy Club Experiments Work?

In order to become a member of Hampton's Chem-Phy Club, a student must have a B average in either Physics or Chemistry and a basic interest in the field of science.

Sponsored by Miss Magette, Mrs. Connor, and Mr. Rose, members met on Thursday nights for lab work and informative lectures.

Officers for this year were Richard Jones, president; Carl Markowitz, vice-president; Mary Lou Tubbs, secretary; Jimmy Osborn, treasurer; Geoffrey Kollmann, SCA representative; and Marena Grant, chaplain.

Some members of the Chem-Phy Club investigate the outcome of one of their many experiments. Miss Magette looks pleased — could this experiment have worked??!!

Biology Club Studies Living Things

Biology Club Members: Frances Sweet, Connie Miracle, Nancy Carter, Karen Galt, Judy Kellenbarger, Sherry Hunter, Charles Fullman, Miss Mayes, John Robins, Jackie Sanders, Larry Dempsey, Kathy Caum, Robert Meeks, Carol Miller, Tommy Thomas, and John Konkolewski.

In order to promote education in the science of living things, the Biology Club, meeting once a week, has developed individual and group projects. Two projects planned for this year are to find the effects of different drugs on animals and to explore the building of plant cells.

With the aid of Miss Betty Mayes, sponsor, the Biology Club is led by president, Jacqueline Sanders; vice-president, Charles Fullman; secretary, Karen Galt; and treasurer, John Robins. Committee chairmen in charge of various school activities were Sherry Hunter, Robert Meeks, Carol Miller, Kathie Caum, and John Konkolewski.

Officers of the 1962-1963 Biology Club were Miss Mayes, sponsor; Jacqueline Sanders, president; Charles Fullman, vice-president; John Robins, treasurer; Karen Galt, secretary.

French Club Active in Language Week

After the French Club meeting, Mary Charles White offers Mrs. Yates refreshments.

The purpose of the French Club (le Circle Francais) is to promote among the students of Hampton High School a greater interest in the language, people, and customs of France.

Led by officers, Mary Charles White, president; David Benbassat, vice-president; Betty Haskins, secretary; Joyce Harris, treasurer; Cam Ballard, chaplain; Paulette Jackson, historian; and Barbara Riggle, publicity chairman, the main project of the year was Foreign Language Week, in which all the foreign language clubs made a joint effort to fulfill their goals. This end was achieved through posters, displays, bulletin boards, and chiefly through an assembly for language students. The club also had various activities in the way of meetings, lectures, talks, and banquets. These were planned in such a manner as to promote the main goal of the French Club.

Spanish Club Holds Annual Banquet

Members of the Spanish Club were Sandi Burton, Ann Johnson, Kay Bootn, Diane Petitt, Ann Tweedy, Mr. Robbins, Nancy Crooke, Miss Burns, Gary Boxer, Camelia Vick, Ginny Hudson, William Hayes, Judy Yates, and Connie Hunt.

Increasing the interest of Hampton High Students in a language is the goal of every language club. This is so with the Spanish Club.

This year the Spanish Club planned a banquet which was held in a Spanish restaurant. Gary Boxer, club president, participated in a discussion group during Language

Week at Hampton and members of the club presented a skit during the language assembly.

For the 1962-1963 school year, the Spanish Club was led by Gary Boxer, president; Miriam Peterson, vice-president; Judy Yates, secretary; Susan Traynham, treasurer; and Kay Booth, chaplain.

German Club Increases Membership

German Club members: (FIRST ROW) Steve Willis, Miss Morgan, Rhett Dutton, Martie Sandman, Fred Rencsok, Jim Tongue, Millie Rusmiselle. (ROW TWO) Carl Markowitz, Kaycy Conley, David Childress, Linda Phillips, Judy Bretana, Jim Draley, Carole Marlin, Mary Lynn King, Margareta

The German Club, sponsored by Miss Jane Morgan, alternated its meetings between the last Monday and Tuesday of each month.

The 1962-1963 Club officers were as follows: Elisabeth Sherman, president; Tom Northen, vice-president; Sharyn Bendos, secretary-treasurer; Ursula Brown, chaplain; Judy Bretana, parKoestner, Arnold Taylor, Miriam Roberts, Ettamary Sherman. (ROW THREE) Tom Northen, Ursula Brown, Spike Mackey, Elisabeth Sherman, Irby Jones, Jane Sherman, Carol Helmer, Bobby Soter, Bill Richardson, Ed Baker.

liamentarian; Guy Matteson, SCA representative.

A window display for language week, a progressive dinner and a spring banquet were the projects planned for the year.

The purpose of the German Club is to increase an interest in the German people, their language, their culture, and their customs.

Latin Clubbers Maintain High Averages

Along with Stan Latham, president; Mallory Sinclair, vice-president; Sherri Carpini, recording secretary; Diana Gibson, corresponding secretary; Ann Johnson, treasurer; and Irene Jacobs, chaplain, Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Taylor, the sponsors, endeavored to attain the goal of the Latin Club which was to increase the interest of Hampton students in taking Latin.

Although the Latin language is sometimes called a "dead language" it is very useful, as many Latin students have realized. By knowing Latin, many meanings of words can be derived.

In order to become a member of the Latin Club a student must maintain a "B" average.

This year the Latin Club held a Roman banquet and a banquet for the installation of officers.

Hampton Only School in Virginia

One hundred and one members of the Hampton High School Symphonic Band, who were chosen by Mr. Lawrence and the Band Council, and eleven chaperones, attended the Southern Division of the Music Educators National Conference in Charleston, West Virginia.

The majority of the bands who attended this conference were college bands, and the Hampton band was the only high school band in Virginia invited to attend.

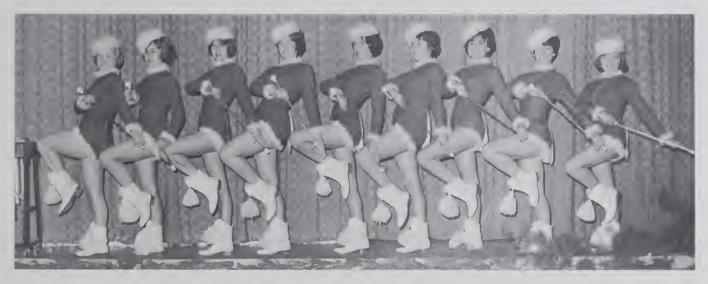

The Symphonic Band was requested to play the "Concertina For Band" by Fritz Velke. Mr. Velke attended the conference and highly commended the band for its performance. He stated that it was the best he had ever heard his concertina played by any high school band. The band also played two other numbers — a march and a waltz — both of which were performed in excellence.

In order to attend this conference the band raised $2,000, received donations from various merchants in Hampton, and was given a greatly-appreciated check from the city for $3,000.

Directors of the 1962-1963 Hampton High band are Mr. T. T. Lawrence, Mrs. Jill Poynter, and Mr. Sidney Swiggett.

to Attend Convention in West Virginia

Hampton High School Majorettes were Gerry Whitehouse, Beverly Lindberg, Cheryl Burdette, Penny Livingston, Peggy Eason, Ann Chambers, Brenda McCoy, Bridget McQuillen, Jean Karpiak.

1962-1963 Band Officers were Dwight Steiner, Carole Goldstein, Mr. T. T. Lawrence, Penny Livingston, and Kenny Matthews.

Sophomores Compose White Band —

The White Band is composed chiefly of members of the sophomore class. Because of its large numbers, this band was able to present concerts of its own as well as joint concerts with the Red Band.

Members of the White Band were given the opportunity to try out for the trip to West Virginia and to become members of the Red Band and Concert Band. These try-outs were on a competitive basis and the best were chosen for the two honors by Mr. Lawrence and the Band Council.

Present "POP" Concert in April

The Band Council, which is comprised of elected representatives from the senior, junior, and sophomore classes and the band officers, was created with the purpose of helping Mr. Lawrence.

The Council may be called the "governing body of the band." Members may inflict demerits and other penalties on those students who break any law which the band has set up.

The drum majors for 1962-1963 were Bill Hundley, John Torian, and Frankie Knott.

Marching Band Adds Spirit to Games

The Marching Band, composed of seniors, juniors, and sophomores, was complete with 145 members this year. The students who come from the Red and White Bands compete for the honor early in the Fall. This year there were three drum majors and nine majorettes in addition to the instrumental part of the band.

The Marching Band plays in parades and local community functions such as Armed Forces Day, and no football game would ever be complete without the spirited music presented at each home game.

This year the Marching Band purchased a new Hampton High School flag to add to its guard's collection.

Crabbers Send 45 to All-State Band

Bloch, Jim Duffey, George Lingle, Neil Nightengale, Bryan Landrum. (ROW 4) John Torian, Bill Hundley, Frank Knott, John Lunsford, David Lyons, Fred Renscok, Harvey Lloyd, Penny Livingston, Steve Mesic. (ROW 5) James Mahaffey, Tommy Hughes, Paul Fernald, Philip Smith, Doris Brown, Linda Freeman, Sherri Baldree, Frances Freeman, Roseanne Wagner, Bill Myers, David Childress.

Tryouts for the District All-State band were held at Jefferson Davis Junior High and at Ferguson High Schools. This year the Hampton High Band placed forty-five, the largest number in the district, in All-State. Thirty-three members placed in the Workshop Band, which is the next highest to All-State.

The musicians are chosen by judges who base their decisions on sixty per cent for prepared music and forty per cent for sight reading. The prepared music is practiced for about a month in advance, and students are allowed to review the sight reading for three minutes.

The Dance Band this year consisted of twenty members who were chosen on a competitive basis from forty-eight tryouts. The selected members are chosen by Mr. Lawrence.

The Dance Band plays at Kiwanis functions, PTA meetings, the annual fashion show, and some junior high school proms. Because of these activities, the band is often considered the best link between school and community.

A Cappella Choir Travels

Copeland, Gloria Yakalavich, Carolyn Pickett, Sandy Firth, Ann Moore, Jim Freeman, Tommy Vick, Johnnie Jackson, Kenny Matthews, Tony Ferroni, Elisabeth Sherman, Martha Forrest, Carole Townsend, Sandy Paschall, Jamie Hubbard, Kitty Adams. (ROW 4) Kay Potter, Jane Dennard, Barbara Panz, Brenda Dansey, Kathleen Mooney, David Vohringer, Tom Miller, John Mann, Ross Dorneman, Kenneth Tucker, Billy Everett, Steve Linkous, Margaret Northen, Bonnie Hayes, Joyce Harris, Diane Williams, Carol Verell, Joy Elvey, Connie Test.

to New York City in the Spring

To help finance their trip to New York, the A'Cappella choir presented an early Spring concert. The secular portion of the program was accompanied by Mrs. Poynter at the organ.

Quality voices and a good background in music are prerequisites for membership in the A'Cappella choir. Under the direction of Mr. Sidney R. Swiggett, the choir was very active in both school and community affairs, presenting various concerts throughout the year including a joint concert with the Hampton High School Band.

Leading the choir in its activities were Tom Northen, president; Johnnie Jackson, vice-president; Lilly Sadler, secretary; Carolyn Pickett, treasurer; Mary Charles White, chaplain; Jamie Hubbard, SCA representative; Bonnie Hayes, Helen McNeill, and Kenny Matthews, librarians.

Highlighting the year's activities for the choir was a Spring trip to New York City.

This year's Girls' Chorus: (FRONT ROW) Miriam DeMedicis, Jennie Schultz, Helen Young, Jeanne Johnson, Frances Minga, Sharon Smith, Jean Harrell. (BACK ROW) Diane Lass, Ursula Brown, Millie Dickens, Frankie McGee, Mary Gould, Alyce Talley, Jeanette Malone.

Mixed Chorus Strengthens Department

The Mixed Chorus includes those boys and girls who work together in combined harmony to present featured songs in concerts presented throughout the year.

Under the direction of Mr. Sidney Swiggett, the chorus presented songs in excellence at the Winter and Spring concerts with the A'Cappella Choir.

FHA Reorganizes at Hampton

Under the leadership of Mrs. Quinn, sponsor, and Becky Ragsdale, president, the Future Homemakers reorganized at Hampton this year.

The main project of the club this year was to draw up a constitution for future members and to build objectives for future years.

The FHA served the evaluation committee when it visited Hampton High in March.

Other officers besides Becky Ragsdale were Adeline Stanworth, vice-president; Carolyn Sealey, secretary; Jan Jackson, treasurer; Sharon Schmoldt, chaplain; Faye Doughty, historian; and Sandi Major, reporter.

Members of the FHA learn many useful household hints. Here Judy Kellenbarger and Norma Kellogg prepare biscuits they have made for a snack.

FNA Acquaints Girls with Nursing

FNA Members: Mary Louise Tubbs, Cheryl Johnson, Nancy Smith, Roseanne Wagner, Byron Luna, Ann Johnson. (ROW TWO) Mrs. Bennett, Barbara Braig, Nancy Crooke, Martha

Booker, Lou Houck, Diane Petitt, Ann Alfred, Elaine Bowles, Diane Drake, Alona Stiegburg, Juanita Strode, Cynthia Jump.

The Future Nurses of America is a club which was formed to acquaint girls with nursing and to encourage students to enter this field.

Working with the sponsors Mrs. Winifred Bennett and Mrs. Gene Williams are Mary Louise Tubbs, president; Cheryl Lewis, vice-president; Nancy Lynn Smith, recording secretary; Roseanne Wagner, corresponding secretary; Byron Luna, treasurer; Ann Johnson, SCA representative; and Kay Purser and Vicki Holmes, historians.

This year the FNA visited various hospitals and medical institutions throughout the area. So that the members might gain further insight into and knowledge about the nursing profession and its functions, a visit to the DePaul Hospital in Norfolk was included in their itinerary of institutions. As a special project, the Future Nurses provided a needy family with a Thanksgiving food basket.

Lou Houck and Byron Luna demonstrate some of their nursing techniques on patient, Roseanne Wagner.

Staff Members Aid Teachers in Work

Members of the Projection Staff were (SEATED) Jack Barber, Jack Karika, Marshall Hughes. (STANDING) Glen White, Ted Harvey, Richard Jones, Richard Lee, and Don Ackley.

The Projection Staff is responsible for delivering equipment to teachers when it is needed and for giving help in using it correctly. The meetings are held the second Monday night of each month in the Library and are conducted by Marshall Hughes, president. Other officers of the staff are James Campbell, vice-president; Jack Karika, secretary-treasurer; and Douglas Conyers, SCA representative. The sponsors, Mrs. Callis Carmines and Mrs. Robert Ballagh supervised the plans for a Spring Banquet for the staff.

Garricks Present "Glass Menagerie"

Garricks Club Officers for 1962-1963 were (SEATED) Carol Chorba, president; Gayle Stotler, vice-president; (STANDING) Janet Fisher, secretary; Joyce Fisher, treasurer; Kaycy Conley, SCA Representative.

The Garricks this year were led by president, Carol Chorba, who was aided by Gayle Stotler, vice-president; Janet Fisher, secretary; and Joyce Fisher, treasurer.

In the fall the Garricks sponsored a play, The Glass Menagerie, which met with enthusiastic praise. This group also assisted in the presentation of the class plays for Play Night.

In the spring, the Garricks gave a banquet for the Thespians, during which the awards for acting and directing were presented.

Miss Joyce Dellinger served as sponsor for the Garricks.

Valuable Aid Volunteered by Students

This year's Student Assistants were: (ROW 1) Cathy Lassiter, Lynda Whiteside, Bettye Compton, Judy Bretana, Delores Fielding, Dianna Petit. (ROW 2) Frances Scott, Mary Lynn King, Barbara Massey, Merce Richardson, Marie Boudreau, Lilly Sadler, Carolyn Pickett, Ella Wilson, Janyce Austin, Nancy Smith, Alyce

Sponsored by Mrs. Catherine Wilson, the Student Assistants and Aids perform one of the most valuable services in our school. The purpose of this group is to serve the teachers and administrative personnel in any way possible. This includes working in the office, typing, mimeographing tests, running errands, helping in the clinic, and answering the telephones. President, Lilly Sadler heads the Student Assistants with vice-president, Connie Nichols, secretary, Marvella Martin, treasurer, Mary Lynn King, chaplain, Talley, Patti Dunn, Joyce Harris, Sandy Primm, Anne Tweedy, Connie Hunt, Jan Wilson, Ellen Eubank, Christine Larner, Judy Reese, Suzette Weaver, Bonnie Bloxom, Marena Grant, Linda Clark, Mallory Sinclair, Cheryl Burdette, Ruth Klein, Diane Pollock, Carolyn Chauncey, Judy Dangerfield, Anita Midkiff.

Carolyn Pickett, and SCA representative, Judy Cox.

When a girl first becomes a member she is considered a student aid and is recognized by the presentation of a corsage. In her second year she becomes a student assistant and is given a certificate; in her third and final year she is awarded a gold pin to signify her achievement.

The club was very active this year, having given a fall dance and a Spring banquet.

One of the services of a student assistant is helping in the main office. Here Diane Pollock and Mary Jo Schwalenberg check the schedule cards of the seniors.

Business students at Hampton High acquaint themselves with new and improved business systems through membership in the FBLA. The Hampton High School chapter is a member in good standing of the Virginia State Chapter and The National Organization of Future Business Leaders.

Peggy Eason, a senior at Hampton High, earned the honor of being the State FBLA President. Peggy also serves the High School chapter as parliamentarian.

Various members of the FBLA will attend the State Convention to be held in Richmond to enter projects which have won on the district level and the regional level.

Crabber Is De "Student of the Year"

Members of the D.E. Club for 1962-1963 were (KNEEL-ING) Tommy Vick, Marena Grant, Carol Routten, David Eason, (STANDING) Frankie Hamrick, Joyce Carter, Sue

Lambert, Sherri Duncan, John Lynch, Pat Jernigan, Barry Buchanan, Linda Carter, Raymond Eustler, Jimmy Carle, Randy Smith, Bobby Lupo, and Robert Mayer.

The Distributive Education Club, which is on an overall program of district, state, and national levels, endeavors to train students in retailing careers and to include various areas of distribution so that students can see the many advantageous opportunities for advancement in the field.

This year's officers were president, Marena Grant; vice-president, Tommy Vick; secretary, Carol Krause; senior treasurer, Elbe Dement; junior treasurer, David Eason.

President Marena Grant was chosen "D.E. Student of the Year" from this district.

During lunch and after school, many students stop by the D.E. room to shop for clothes and gifts. A varied assortment of girls and boys clothing may be found at any time of the year, and during Christmas many ideal gifts are displayed. Here, Mary Jo Schwalenberg browses through the dresses during the senior lunch period.

Chess Club Members Enjoy Challenge

Hampton High's Chess Club members were Willard Hooker, Rick Peters, John Robins, Laurits Dixon, Andrew Convevy, Dan Schmierer, Matthew Buynoski.

Members of the Hampton High School Chess Club met every Monday night in the school conference room to practice this ancient game of skill. Words such as "Rook," "Bishop," "Check" and "Pawn" were heard frequently as these boys learned to play their best under the leadership of Mr. Solomon, sponsor.

Officers of the 1962-1963 club were Martin Schlesinger, president; Laurits Dixon, sergeant-at-arms; John Robins, secretary-treasurer; and Willard Hooker and Andy Convevy, S.C.A. representatives.

An important meet with Warwick which was to be held at Hampton High was scheduled for the early Spring.

Laurits Dixon, John Robins, and Matthew Buynoski figure the best move for the Queen in a practice game.

Math Honor Society Reorganizes

Honor Society Members: Lee Dawson, William Hibble, Sue Wolff, Stan Latham, Jimmy Osborne, Joanne Hallissy, Mary Lou Paulson, Thomas Baker, Carol Goldstein, Mike Hawkins,

Students with unusual capability, achievement, and interest in mathematics reorgainzed the Math Honor Society this year. The Society promoted its purposes of furthering interest in math and recognizing outstanding students with several projects. Improvement and expansion of the library mathematics section, and publication and distribution of the MATHEMATICS MONITOR were successfully accomplished.

Tim Rau and Exchange Student, Margareta Koestner, work diligently on a calculus problem.

Officers for 1962-1963 Mathematics Club are Mike Hawkins, president; Susan Wolff, secretary; Mike Jones, vicepresident; and Margareta Koestner, treasurer and SCA representative.

YFC Encourages Christian Living

Joan Willis, Margaret Carter, Jerry Martin, Mr. Haley, Sandy Paschal, and Norman Cowley.

Encouraging daily Christian living by example and bringing people closer to Christ are the main aims of the Youth For Christ Club. Informative and inspirational meetings help increase the membership, which is open to all students, each year.

This year the club prospered under the quality leadership of their sponsor, Mr. Charles Haley. Throughout the year, the Hampton High School group meets with other groups for roundtable discussions and Bible quizzes. For two successive years, the Hampton YFC Club has won the Eastern District trophy for their knowledge in the field of religion.

Teens Stress Safety at Hampton

On the second and fourth Thursdays of each month, the members of the Hampton High Safe-Teens serve as jurors in traffic court cases in the city of Hampton.

Members of this club strive to promote safe driving in and around Hampton. Sponsor Mr. Duckworth and president Barbara Braig lead the club in its efforts to bring safety to our highways.

Members of Safe-Teen Club inspect car under the supervision of Barbara Braig, club president. Reports on inspections and court cases are given at the regular meetings.

Speech Club Sponsors Two Contests

Speech Club Members for 1962-1963 were (KNEELING) Diana Gibson, Bob Kenny. (STANDING) Bill Eyre, Carter Findley, Tina Stafford, David Conway, Jerry Dellinger, and Mr. Stanley Mitchem, sponsor.

Mr. Mitchem presents silver bowls to Jerry Torgersen and Carol Becker for their outstanding work in the "What Freedom Means to Me" contest.

In order to promote interest in oral activities, the Speech Club extends bids to students who have accumulated ten points or more in the field of speech. Debating, speaking in assemblies, acting in plays, participating on Krabba Karavan, and contributing to speech classes give the points needed.

The "What Freedom Means to Me" contest, and one based on extemporaneous speaking were sponsored by the Club.

Helping Mr. Mitchem this year were David Conway, president; Bill Eyre, vice-president and SCA representative; and Carter Findley, secretary.

Students Debate U.S. World Trade

Hampton High School Debators for 1962-1963 were Arnold Taylor, Ellen Brown, Hans Moll, Jo Ann Goetkin, Charles Danner, Paul Ritchie, Elizabeth Dudley, Carter Findley, Elise Kollman, and Mr. Charles Johnson, sponsor.

The comparison of notes is a vital part of any debate team. Here Charles Danner and Carter Findley discuss their method of questioning to be used in their next debate.

The Debate Club, sponsored by Mr. Charles Johnson and closely associated with the Speech Club, provides students with an opportunity to develop their oratorical abilities and their reasoning faculties. Interested students who join the club spend the first part of the year gathering information for future debates which are held at various schools in Tidewater. At their weekly meetings, the team discussed various arguments to be used and methods of questioning. The topic of this year's debate concerned this question: "Should the United States adopt a reciprocal free trade with the non-communist nations of the world?"

Sports Represented in Varsity Club

Presenting varsity cheerleaders with megaphones and sponsoring the Basketball Homecoming were the two main projects of the Varsity Club this year.

The Varsity Club extends membership to any student who has lettered in a major sport, has an over-all "B" average, and recognizes good sportsmanship.

The members of the Varsity Club, under the leadership of Mr. Russell, sponsor, Jim Matheson, president; Buddy Joynes, vice-president; Paul Powell, secretary; Bill Mettler, treasurer; D. B. Rice, sergeant-at-arms; Cecil Robinson, chaplain; and Fuzzy Kendricks, SCA representative, helped students develop an interest in all sports at Hampton High.

Victory, Victory, is our cry. V I C T O R Y!!! Here, Hunter Almond, Oscar Ward, Joe Raleigh, Buddy Joynes, D. B. Rice, Gary Carl, and Mike Jones spell out the familiar yell heard at all varsity games.

Karavan Features School Activities

Members of the Krabba Karavan for 1962-1963: John Robins, Charles Gilbert, Judy Bretana, Diana Gibson, Bill Eyre, Bob Kenny, Eddie Deans. (BACK ROW) Tina Stafford, Ellen Eubank, Sally Groome, Linda Robinson, Beate Lindinger, Frances Scott, John Rollins, Connie Test, Pat Perry, Glenda Pierge, Kathy Guillotte, and Kaycy Conley.

For the 1962-1963 school year, the members of Krabba Karavan chose as hostess, Diana Gibson, a senior. As in previous years the radio program was broadcast every Saturday morning over WVEC, but this year the time of the program was from 9:05 to 9:30.

To start the broadcasts successfully, Diana interviewed Hampton's foreign exchange student, Margareta Koestner, who discussed Christmas in America and Austria. Other schools, singing groups, band members, and Honor Council members were also featured. Once every few weeks, a panel discussion was organized discussing the publicity concerning the President's family, Twirp Week, and other subjects on which the members could express their views.

This year in order to instruct Karavan members in radio techniques and the manner in which to deliver sports and news reports, Frank Donalson, a WVEC employee, conducted a few after-school classes.

The Krabba Karavan staff is composed of sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Two seniors are elected host and hostess, while the rest of the members alternate in presenting sports and news reports and sometimes participating in panel discussions.

Bob Kenny, Mistress of Ceremonies Diana Gibson, and Anne Jones discuss the Prom scene in the annual PTA fashion show.

Highlight Develops New, Better Methods

The Krabba Highlight, adopting new standards and policies to keep it from stagnating, found itself undergoing original changes. Among these were the utilizing of sophomore and junior talent, and the offering of constructive criticism and praise to school organizations. Also the paper adopted a policy of being a sounding board for students' likes and dislikes. The Highlight published some radical looking papers as a result of the objective to change the looks as well as the content of the paper. A different masthead and newsprint in a larger size enhanced the new physical changes in the paper. Fighting for free expression of ideas, the Highlight has adopted a policy of high idealism and of becoming an excellent newspaper.

Newspaper Staff: Frances Lee Scott, assistant advertising manager; Eddie Deans, advertising manager; Billy Vann, circulation manager; Bonnie Alberts, typing editor; Prentiss Gandy, editor-in-chief; Judye Fuller,

The Seafarer Encourages Creativity

The 1962-1963 Seafarer Staff were Sue Buck, assistant editor; Mary Hoover, circulation manager; Dana Dix, art editor; Mary Louise Tubbs, editor-in-chief; Mrs. Virginia Sommer, advisor; Barbara Braig, assistant circulation manager; Sherri Carpini, proof reader.

Hampton High School's literary magazine, The Seafarer, offers students an opportunity to gain recognition for creative writing and art. The staff is comprised of Mary Louise Tubbs, editor; Sue Buck, assistant editor; Dana Dix, art editor; Mary Hoover, circulation manager; Barbara Braig, assistant circulation manager; and Sherri Carpini, proof reader. All students of the school were encouraged to submit their work to the staff and from that submitted, the best was chosen to be used in the publication.

Mary Louise Tubbs explains to Mrs. Sommer a layout of one of the pages in the literary magazine. Conferences such as this were held often to determine the essays, poems, and short stories to be used.

KRABBA Includes Graduation

Members of the KRABBA staffs put in many hours during and after school. Here, Mrs. Woodard checks copy while John Mann and Larry Guffey plan the lay-out of a page and Judy Bretana checks sophomore names for pictures.

Sports Editor Richard Jones points out a picture to be used on the football pages to Wayne Veryzer while Paul Powell, Charles Aardema, and John Lerner look on. Besides football, there were also basketball, track, baseball, golf, and cross country pictures to be cropped and laid out before sending to the publisher.

to Become a Complete Yearbook

feature editor; Miriam Peterson, (SITTING) Betty Haskins, Camelia Vick, Judy Bretana, Betty Wade Wyatt, and Claudette Corbett.

Many people do not realize what a job it is putting out an annual. Only a person who has worked on it can really say at its completion, "Thank goodness, it's finished." After many hours of work to meet deadlines, identify pictures, and lay out pages, one can fully appreciate the enjoyment of a yearbook.

Under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Woodard, sponsor; John Mann, editor-in-chief; Larry Guffey, business manager; Richard Jones, sports editor; and Mary Jo Schwalenberg, feature editor; staff members were able to complete their work on the various sections.

In order to include graduation, the prom, and various other activities, the annual was not distributed until late in the summer.

Sports

Spirit is defined as courage and enthusiasm. One finds no more courage and enthusiasm than is displayed on the athletic field and gym floor. Those participating in sports show a specific type of school spirit, giving their all not for the glory of themselves, but for that of their school. Hampton High has produced many fine athletes in the past and will continue to do so as long as there is that extra drive present which causes them to go out of their way, for the sake of the game and of the school, rather than of themselves.

Hampton was well represented in sports this year on both the district and state levels. In the following pages we pay tribute to those of whom we should be justly proud.

Increased Experience Adds To Strength

The Crabber Cindermen, under Coach Art Letoha, won four of six dual meets, placed 8th in the Tidewater meet, 3rd in the Eastern District meet, and tied for 5th in the State meet. "Chip" Abbott excelled by netting 55 points. Hampton's other leading scorers were Mike Jones, 34 points; Jerry Bocrie, 30; D. B. Rice, 28; Gary Boxer, 27; and Robert Russell, 27, thus illustrating Hampton's well-balanced depth. Hampton's mile relay team of Mike Jones, Wayne McDowell, "Chip" Abbott, and Jerry Bocrie set a new State record of 3:25.4 at the State meet at Williamsburg. Pole vaulter, Robert Russell, set a new school record of 12'9" at the Ferguson meet at Newport News' Saunders Stadium.

Crabbers Set 3 Year Mark

The Hampton High School Baseball team completed another fine season with a record of 15 wins and 3 losses. This year's season set a new record of 50 wins and 4 losses in 3 years. The graduated seniors who have 2 and 3 years of varsity baseball behind them are the ones largely responsible for this excellent record. But even ahead of the players, Hampton's fine coaches, Mike Anastasio and Glenn Russell, should receive much credit for maintaining a perpetually strong ball club.

Underclassmen returning next year are: KNEELING: Joe Sgavichio, Cecil Robinson, Jim Matheson, Leroy Davis. STANDING: Coach Glenn Russell, John Saintsing, Fuzzy

Pitchers Mike McMahon, Larry Loucks, and Jim Pitts add a big punch to the team.

Allen Davis takes batting practice, a vital part of hitting power.

JV's Show Superior Talent

Hampton's JV baseball team, under conscientious Coach Bowers, compiled an excellent 10-4 record in 1962. Hard-throwing pitchers backed by strong fielding and teamwork were the elements which resulted in such a fine record. One important factor in the success of the "Little Red" was a fine crop of heavy hitters, allowing HHS to score 115 runs in 14 games — a fine record for any team.

Grid Squad Regains Lagging Prestige

Hampton's 1962 football team with its new coach, "Win" Siegfried, had a good season. Hampton lost its first game (13-6) to Ferguson High. The team looked entirely different the following week as Hampton defeated York, 26-0. The team's defense excelled the following week in the 13-12 upset victory over Maury. Princess Anne defeated Hampton badly the following week. Hampton lost the following two weeks to Woodrow Wilson and Oscar Smith as Hampton's defensive team held the two opponents scoreless for most of the game; even though the offensive team could not muster an offensive threat. At Hampton's Homecoming game Warwick was defeated 13-7, as Hampton's offense and defense excelled throughout the game. Norview, Hampton's next opponent, was marching for a touchdown near the end of the game but Hampton's great defense rose to the occasion and held Norview on the two yard line for a hard earned 13-6 victory. Hampton went into the traditional game with its annual rival Newport News with high hopes of winning even though Newport News was unbeaten. Hampton, however, suffered a disppointing loss while holding Newport News' supposedly great offense to only six points in the 6-0 loss.

The team ended the season with a 4-6 record. "Bubba" Carleton, a junior full-back, led the team in scoring with 24 points. Hampton's first string full-back, Joe Raleigh, had a good season despite being constantly hampered by injuries. Wesley Oast, Ashton Wray, and co-captain "Buddy" Joynes were Hampton's other outstanding backs.

The line was anchored by such standouts as co-captain D. B. Rice, Ross Dorneman, Bruce Malone, Mike Thomas, and Bill Thomas. Their line play in all of the games was exceptional.

Hampton's ends were led by sophomore standouts David Mc-Knight and Tommy Lynn, and junior Hunter Allman.

JV Team Shows Good Talent and Strength

Hampton's junior varsity football team led by co-captains Tommy Catlett and John Ishon and coached by Mr. Maynor finished the season with a 4 and 2 record. Hampton showed fine scoring power, averaging 14 points per game.

The players along with Coach Maynor deserve a great deal of credit for their hard work and fine play throughout the season.

Track Team Shows Great Potential

Hampton's indoor track team finished 5th in the state despite several bad breaks, little practice, and tough competition. Hampton succeeded in capturing seconds in the 440 and 880 relays, third in the high jump and fourth in the high hurdles. With better weather and outdoor season approaching, Coach Win Siegfried looks forward to a fine season.

Position Changes Add Big Boost

Bobby Creasman fights with Great Bridge player for rebound in 47-46 Hampton victory.

Hampton's basketball team, coached by Mike Anastasio, showed its ability to come back by finishing the season with a 10-8 record after starting with four straight losses. Beginning the season with only three seniors, the team relied heavily on last year's J.V. graduates and All-Peninsula center Warren Chapman. With Johnny Saintsing's and Arnold Baker's fine outstanding shooting and Chapman's rebounding, the team won six out of the last nine games. The team showed fine strength and talent all season long. With seven veterans returning and the best crop of J.V. players in HHS sports' history coming up, Hampton should be a top contender again next year.

Little Red Wallops Newport News

Hampton's David McKnight scores one of his many lay-ups.

Hampton's J.V. Basketball team led by co-captains W. R. Deskins and Bill Greenberger, Bill Lawrence, Henry Solis and later Mike Yearwood and David McKnight finished with a 17 and 1 record — the best in HHS history. On January 6, the "Little Red" suffered their only defeat in a 42-41 loss to Newport News. The team avenged their loss with a 57-40 victory over the "Little Breeze" of Newport News, climaxing a sparkling season.

Crabber Thinclads Have Successful Year

Hampton's 1963 track team, coached by Win Siegfried, had a very successful year. The team won the Eastern District Meet, the Duke Durham Relays, dominated the Virginia Pilot Relays, took third in the State Meet, and lost only one dual meet. The team, led by Chip Abbott, Gary Boxer. and Robert Russell, showed great depth and set five school records. Robert Russell, pole vaulted 13'6";

Chip Abbott ran the low hurdles in 19.1 and the 220 in 21.5; Bill Johnson ran the mile in 4:33.7; and the mile relay team of Mike Jones, Paul Powell, Wayne McDowell, and Abbott set a new state record of 3:23.5. Boxer tied the 100 yd. record in 10 flat while Abbott tied the high hurdle record in 14.7 secs. With its fine depth and power, Hampton proved to be one of the state's top contenders.

Hampton's Hai. Bennett puts shot 49 feet.

Crabbers Win 20 More Games

Hampton's 1963 baseball team, coached by Mike Anastasio, finished the season with a 13-2 record in conference games and a 20-2 overall record. Cecil Robinson and Jim Matheson led the team throughout the season. Robinson finished his last season with a 10-0 pitching record. In his three years of varsity play, he has won 24 games, which is more than any other pitcher has ever won in the Eastern District. He pitched a no-hit perfect game against Maury May 14. Jim Matheson hit well over .400 this year and he also had over 25 R.B.I.'s to lead the team and district while Johnny Saintsing was the team's leading base stealer.

The team was dealt a severe blow at the end of the season when it was ruled ineligible for the Eastern District title because Hampton had scheduled too many games. Despite the ruling, Hampton won the Peninsula Championship and finished with the best record in the Eastern District.

Cheerleaders Lead School Spirit

Sports are an integral part of student activities at HHS. Sports represent a constructive outlet for excessive energy for athletes, while for others they provide an enjoyable pastime as a spectator.

In either capacity, participant or spectator, sportsmanship is most important. The contributing factor to this display of school spirit and sportsmanship has been the encouraging efforts of our enthusiastic Varsity Cheerleaders.

Led by head cheerleader Jean Clodfelter, their spirit prevailed throughout the year with their hearty cheers of GO-FIGHT-WIN, they helped to spur the Mighty Crabbers on to victory. This year's other cheerleaders are Diana Gibson, Kay Booth, Margaret Haley, Judy Bretana, Susan Wolff, Mary Jo Schwalenberg, Paulette Jackson, Tina Stafford, Janice Thompson, and Susan Marple.

Susan Marple leads cheer at football game with the other cheerleaders.

JV's Give "Little Red" Big Push

Kathy Seaton leads cheer during J.V. basketball game.

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders spur the J.V. teams on to victory during the football and basketball seasons with their proud cheers. They help decorate the goal posts before varsity football games and they sometimes fill in for ailing varsity cheerleaders. Seven girls are picked in the previous spring. This year's cheerleaders are: Kathy Seaton — head cheerleader, Marvella Martin — co-head, Connie Hunt, Judy Reese, Beatrice Falls, Brenda Church, and Jean Murawski.

Hampton High's school spirit is not confined within its doors nor to its athletic fields. It is also displayed very prominently by the merchants of Hampton. Without their cooperation, many vital functions of our school life would be eliminated; with their patronage, a successful edition of this 1963 KRABBA is made possible.

In appreciation of their interest in Hampton High School, we offer these pages to the promotion of their businesses and we patronize them in gratitude for the many services they themselves render us.

COULD WE INTEREST YOU IN A BANKING CAREER?

After groduotion whot?

If your plans call for college, business school, or continuing your studies in other ways, we extend our congratulations and best wishes. We believe in post-high school education as a solid foundation for the future. The lost thing we would want to do is to dissuade you from such a wise course.

But — if job hunting is to be your lot after June, we suggest that you consider the opportunities to be found in the banking field.

More specifically, we cordially invite you to come to our bank and discuss with us how you might fit into our organization.

As a growing full-service bank, we are continually on the look-out for the right people to fill a variety of interesting and rewarding jobs. In the past two years, the building of two new branches created a number of openings. Future expansion will necessitate even more personnel.

Our present stoff includes several recent graduates and seniors of Hompton High School. Among them are Noncy Peake, Sandra Stewart, Lee Nestor, Potsy Teogle, Judy Cox, Sandra Burton, and Jimmy Droley. Who knows — you may be the next to join our banking family. At least, we would like to talk it over with you personally.

The voice with a smile

Today, as always, the C&P voice with a smile is as close as "Operator" on your dial. Intelligently, cheerfully, the "Operator" handles phone calls to faraway places and intricate day-to-day problems of telephone users. Her job is interesting, important, demanding and rewarding. She's an indispensable member of our C&P communications service team.

As We Depart . . .

As we think back upon our year at Hampton High we remember its many events with varied emotions. For Sophomores, it marked the thrill of beginning their high school life. However, some of these remember it only as a stepping stone toward the new Kecoughtan High School. Juniors met the year with a little higher status, a little more prestige as they continued their journey toward becoming Seniors.

The year 1963 found Seniors on the pinnacle of high school life. We were admired, we were honored, we were the school spirit of Hampton High School. Though graduation marked a turning point in our lives, though it broke up our unity as a class, it did not destroy the memories of our high school life, our loyalty to Hampton High, our own SCHOOL SPIRIT.
